PREFACE

One of the first initiatives of the Henry Sweet Society when it was founded in 1983 was to issue a bi-annual Newsletter to serve as a regular channel of communication with its worldwide membership. The Newsletter soon established itself as a mine of information, not only about the activities of the Society and its members, but also about work being published in the field of the history of linguistics, about relevant conferences and other events. Since 1998, by which time the Newsletter had been renamed the Bulletin, the text of recent issues has also been available on the Society's website, thus making the information accessible to a wider public.

By the end of 1999 thirty-three issues of the Newsletter / Bulletin had been issued, and it was already becoming evident that an index to the disparate contents would be appreciated by many of our members. Accordingly, the Executive Committee readily accepted the suggestion from the President, Werner Hüllen, that his colleague Astrid Göbels (Essen) be invited to take on the rather unenviable task of preparing a name and subject index to the Newsletter / Bulletin. The Society is greatly in her debt for her painstaking work which, meanwhile we have supplemented with additional material, including a cumulative membership list which may itself perhaps be of interest to historians of linguistics one day.

3. Author index

Numbers denote issues of the HSS Newsletter/Bulletin. Since many of the issues are slim brochures, it has not been thought necessary to supply actual page numbers.

Numbers in bold roman type indicate both the authors of articles, reviews, etc., and the names of authors discussed.

Numbers in italics denote the authors of publications recorded in the 'Publications received' sections.

Names (initials, surnames) appear exactly as in the publication concerned.

5. Information about the Society

5.1 The Foundation and Constitution of the Henry Sweet Society

The Henry Sweet Society for the History of Linguistic Ideas (HSS) was founded on 11 February 1984 at Oxford, where the inaugural meeting was held. Before that date there was an informal get-together on 18 August 1983. The inaugural colloquium took place on 17 September 1984 at St Peter's College, Oxford.

The aim was to establish a society in Britain where persons with a professional interest in the history of linguistic ideas could meet and debate. As David Cram wrote in the first Newsletter, Oxford was held to be the appropriate place for the inauguration of such a society, 'since it has been the home of a number of important developments in linguistic thought', not least Henry Sweet. Indeed, in the following years, Oxford was the place where the society most frequently held its annual conferences. Other places were London, Cambridge, Brighton, and Luton. In 1998, when Amsterdam was the venue, the society assembled for the first time outside the United Kingdom.

The founding committee of the Henry Sweet Society was constituted as follows:

President: Professor Robert H. Robins, M.A., D.Lit., F.B.A.

Vice-President: Ian Michael, C.B.E., Ph.D., Hon.D.Lit.

Executive Committee:

Chairman: Leslie Seiffert, M.A., Dr. phil.

Hon. Secretary: Vivian Salmon, M.A.

Hon. Treasurer: John L. Flood, M.A., Ph.D.

Publications Sec.: David F. Cram, B.A., Ph.D.

Committee Members: Professor Anna M. Davies, M.A.; D R. McLintock, M.A., D.Lit.; Professor em. Paul B. Salmon, M.A., Ph.D.; D. Wuyastyk, B.Sc., M.A., D.Phil.

Constitution of the Henry Sweet Society for the History of Linguistic Ideas (as adopted in 1984)

1. The name of the Society shall be the Henry Sweet Society for the History of Linguistic Ideas.
2. The aims of the Society shall be to promote and encourage the study of the history

Information about the Society of all branches of linguistic thought, theoretical and applied, and including non-European traditions. Fields of interest shall include not only the major subject-areas such as ethnolinguistics, but also the history of more specialized topics, such as writing systems, literacy, rhetoric and the application of linguistic ideas within technical and professional fields, such as medicine.

3. Membership of the Society shall be open to all persons engaged in scholarly study or research in fields falling within the scope of the Society's aims.

4. The officers of the Society shall be:

- a President, with representative functions
- up to four Vice-Presidents
- Chairman of the executive committee)
- Secretary)
- Assistant Secretary (if required)) Executive Committee
- Treasurer) Officers
- Publications Officer)

5. There shall be not less than four and not more than ten ordinary members of the Executive Committee.

6. The Executive Committee shall have power to co-opt additional members who shall serve until the next Annual General Meeting.

7. Terms of office shall be:

- President: six years
- Vice-Presidents: without limits while they remain members of the Society;
- Executive committee officers: three years, with eligibility for re-election;
- Ordinary members of the Executive Committee: three years, with eligibility for re-election, provided that in every year at least two elected members retire.

8. Elections:

- a) The officers shall be elected by the executive committee.
- b) The ordinary members of the committee shall be elected by the membership of the Society. Nominations shall be made in writing, signed by the proposer and seconder and counter-signed by the nominee to signify assent to nomination. They must reach the Secretary at least fifteen days before the AGM. The Executive Committee may also propose to the meeting the names of persons to serve as committee members.

9. Applications for membership:

- a) Applications for membership should be made to the Secretary, accompanied by a brief statement of interests and qualifications, and of any existing contacts with the Society.

Information about the Society

b) Undergraduate students and graduate students of not more than four years' standing from their admission as graduate students shall be eligible for Associate Membership of the Society.

c) The officers of the Society shall be empowered to admit applicants to membership, seeking advice from the full committee at their discretion.

10. The Annual General Meeting shall be held in conjunction with a lecture, seminar or colloquium, and will normally take place in Oxford. The Treasurer shall present the Society's accounts and the Executive Committee shall recommend the amount of annual subscription, to be paid on 1 November. Twenty members shall constitute a quorum.

11. The word 'member' in this Constitution shall be deemed to include 'associate member'.

12. The above rules shall form the Constitution and may be amended or rescinded at the AGM by a two-thirds majority of members present and voting.
